THE ROTASUN

The Presidents Report

Dear Rotarians, Families & Friends

Dear Rotarians, families & friends

I hope you're all keeping well. This will be final report as Rotasun Report for my year as President. Where has it all gone? Our last meeting saw members meet for some fellowship which was well received. It was great to see Janine & Fred back in town.

It was some sadness that our dear friends Sheila Smith and Paul Craig have resigned from our Club just recently. As you are all aware this was somewhat inevitable as Sheila is relocating back to Queensland was the reason for this, and Paul has left Sunbury, and is wandering the Country. On behalf of all of us we wish them well for their future endeavours and that they are very welcome to visit when the opportunity arises.

On June the 5th the Club held its Saby Sebastian Memorial Spelling Competition final. Ten schools were represented by their champion. After coming to tie-breaker words the competition was won by Nathan from Sunbury West Primary. All the contestants did a great job and congratulations to them all. See pictures on page 3.

Find below up and coming dates:

- 24th June: DM 2324 Fellowship
- 26th June: Final Board meeting for the 24-25 year via Zoom
- 8th July: DM2325 Change over

See you all tomorrow night for the last dinner meeting for the Rotary Year.

With thanks.

Regards,

John Webster
